

Plainspoken songs about the day job, the open road and looking for the good.

Wilhyme is the music of Dave Koenig, a songwriter who grew up in Lubbock and now calls Fort Worth home. The songs sit between Americana and rock: electric enough to fill a bar, honest enough for a living room. After years of solo shows, Wilhyme steps out in 2027 with a full band and a six-song debut EP, Stars By Moonlight.
